InterConnection is a non profit organization that provides refurbished computers and technology skills to underserved communities both locally and abroad.

Reasons to donate your computer

- Your computer will provide opportunities for youth, low income and non profit organizations.
- You will help reduce environmental impacts by properly recycling old or non working computer equipment.
- An itemized tax-deductible receipt is provided for all donations.
- We securely wipe all data from the hard disk of each computer.

Donation Details

- All computers, monitors and peripherals accepted, working or not. Certain fees charged for items that may be too old to reuse or may not pass our testing process.
